CHRISTMAS IS

By Rose Jackson

Christmas is the time of year
To lay down sadness and think of cheer
Christmas is the time of joy
When all the kiddies get a new toy.
Christmas is just after fall
I mean, when we deck the hall.

Christmas is the time when Santa starts to spy.

If you peek he'll put ashes in your eyes.
I heard many a fairy tale told They're all so good, but now I've grown old, but
Christmas still means to me
The brightest holiday there will ever be.

THE JOY OF CHRISTMAS

By Linda Johnson

May the joy of Christmas
Spread throughout the nation
And bring joy and happiness
To every generation.

May the joy of Christmas
Be with you from day to day
To help you show love for others
In a bright and cheerful way.

May the joy of Christmas
Open up many a heart
For the young, old, wicked
The naughty and the smart.

Christmas

Christmas is the time of year
For Santa and nine reindeer
To come and visit, and to leave
A toy or two on Christmas Eve.

The children away on Christmas Day
To find their toys and start to play
For soon it will end, but still with cheer.
Because of the thought of its return next year.

--David Chiang

Dear St. Nick:

This Christmas I want something I have never asked for before. At that time that I wrote you last I wasn't old enough but now that I am, I want a young man about 6 feet tall, with blondish hair (not too long though) medium build, good looking, and most of all sweet and kind. He will go with me through the rest of my life no matter what happens. He will be there beside me. Please Santa try your very best to fill this order.

Lee Sherman

Dear Santa:

I'm a little girl with a long life ahead.
This year I'm six and next year eight. You never can tell. Oh, Santa, the only thing
I want is a Christmas tree with a bright light shining so high that I can have a little twinkle shining in my eye and a glow of silver star sparkling in my heart.

Santa, you have a lot of trouble with Rudolph lost and all, but take care, Santa, and Rudolph will be back home before too long.

Love,
Helen Davis

Dear Santa:

I am a young lady who likes to dress in style.
What I really want for Christmas is a whole new wardrobe, and a typewriter. But if you want to you can, just for fun Santa, drop in a 5'9" handsome young man.

Forever sweet
Sweet Annette

FORMER PRINCIPAL TALKS TO FTA

Mr. Roland A. Carpenter, who was formerly principal of Mildred Jackson High School and who is now serving at supervisor of Research and Statistics for the Arkansas State Department of Education was the speaker at the December meeting of the Future Teachers of America.

He suggested that a club activity might be to begin a tutorial plan to help students who have made low grades. In this way FTA members would have some idea of what might be involved in teaching.

He also informed the club members that a kindergarten program for Hughes was hindered by the tornado that damaged the elementary school in late summer. Classes of the elementary school are now using the rooms at the high school which would have been used for the kindergarten program.

AT VALENTINE

WANTED: A very neat locker on the top row in the senior high building.

FOR EXCHANGE: I would like for someone to exchange seats with me in American History class. That seat is not for me. An interested student.

WANTED: Weight Change: I would like to know if any one would exchange weight with me. I am 5' 4" and I weigh 100 pounds. If you don't want to exchange weight with me, I'll understand.

WANTED: New shoes for old. I have a pair of new shoes that I don't like and if you have some old shoes that are comfortable, how about swapping with me?

FOR SWAP. A senior's report card. Contains more B's than A's; but it is average. I'll take the first straight A report card that is offered to me no later than the first semester.

FOR EXCHANGE: Will exchange a handsome very aggressive young man who is 6'2" and loves all women for a nice intellectual guy, 6'4" who is a one woman lover.

WANTED: A tall handsome male, 17 or 18 years old, blonde or light brown hair, 5'8" to 6'0" tall with green eyes. Have a very nice personality. Please apply in person. You will be notified within ten minutes.

FOR SALE: One seat belt in the driver education car. Crash helmets are supplied. Drive or ride at your own risk.

WANTED: I have two legs, but they are really skinny. If you know of anyone who has pretty legs, please contact me. When you look at my skinny legs you will see that my figure is too big for them. I just don't look right. When I walk I stumble. I get tired of falling. Help me by giving me legs to go with my figure.

FOR EXCHANGE: Do you know if there is anyone who would like to exchange some long hair for short hair. My hair is so short, I have to wear a wig and when I put the wig on it slips right off my head. Help me.

FOR SALE: I have an item that everyone surely want. It comes in every color you can think of and it is handy for writing letters.

Just saying that "I love you" doesn't mean a thing at all. For loving words fly like the birds. When they hear winter's call.

Love is a thing that proves itself a thousand times a day. In the simple things you do. And the little things you say.

Love is a thing called sacrifice. A tonic when you're blue. Love is the joy of doing things for someone dear to you.

WHAT TO DO....

- Greet a friend
- Plant a flower
- Sing a song
- Tell a story to a child
- Wear a smile.
- Visit a lonely buddy.
- Help a struggling student.

Wanted: Some one who would be interested in changing their height with a very short person for just one day. It would be interesting if you could know just how it feels to be looked down on the top of the head by others.

TIME

There are just twenty-four hours of it--time. But how those hours are distributed has made a lot of difference, caused a lot of talk, involved a lot of changing and may be that it hasn't saved anybody anything.

On January 6 DST (daylight saving time) went into effect. So that was the day that buses left in complete darkness so early in the morning. It was the day students had to wave a white flag so the driver could locate them in the darkness.

But help came. New school hours were set up by January 7 and the school day runs from 9:20 to 4:15. This will be short-lived thought as soon there is to morning light by 7:00 a. m. as well as the added hours of daylight at the end of the day.

Then comes time for another adjustment. The school day will return to the hours of 8:20 to 3:15.

I need a new watch. Who has one for sale--cheap. The one I have is pink, oval, and keeps good time but you can hardly see the face so you really can't tell what time it is. I'll sell it cheap.

Can I find a buyer?

TAKE A LOOK AT THE FASION WORLD

The fasion world is constantly changing as you have probably noticed. It changes with us here at HHS as it does on television and in the newspapers and movies.

The mini skirts and dresses will never be totally replaced, bu the most noticeable attire during the winter months has been the "Soul Train Outfits". These consist of suspenders, a pair of jeans, and a pair of crzy colored socks.

Now that spring is getting closer and closer girls are beginning to bring out their minis once more.

The bold plaid pants entered along with the layered look which seems to be a positive favorite of everyone.

The fashion-minded men are really together when they wear the bold plaid pants with cuffed bell-bottoms accompanied by the solid or different colored stacked heeled shoes. The high waisted jean jackets and also the elasticized waist jackets are neat ways to mix and match.

Keep an eye on school mates as the Easter season approaches and dress clothes will be in high fashion for that particular Sunday.

Time Changes?

The time change is a particularly perplexing situation and no one seems to know if it is working for or against them. People are constantly producing ideas of their own and specializing in them.

Take for example the energy crisis. Many people believe that it is just a stunt to get people focused on something other than the Watergate scandals. Others believe it is a way to raise prices to a higher level. And when the so-called "energy criis" is over, people may then be glad to pay the high price.

It may be that when they pay a high price and still have a minimum amount of gasoline that they will consider themselves indeed lucky.

Time doesn't stand still and this is a changing time and a changing world in which we are now living.

YEARBOOK COMPLETED

The last shipment of the 1974 BLUE DEVIL yearbook was shipped on March 1. This was a few days past the set deadline. Ten weeks should be allowed for delivery and an additional week for each day the shipment is late.

HUGHES HIGH SCHOOL ELECTED TO PRESIDENCY OF ARKANSAS ASSOCIATION OF STUDENT COUNCILS FOR 1974-75

Hughes High School was elected the president school of the Arkansas Association of Student Councils for the coming year. They were the winners in a field of three candidates and were victorious over Fayetteville High in a run-off. The other candidate was Mountain Home High School.

Billy Lock had been selected by the local council to represent the school in whatever office the council sought. The local council had selected Manual Hardaway and Betty Conner as its two delegates to the convention which was held in Arkadelphia.

A number of members of the council and the student body had helped in the campaign with such tags and posters as were needed. The tags featured pictures and such slogans as "Don't keep it under your hat--vote Hughes High"; "Domine with Hughes High for president"; "A penny for your thoughts about Hughes High for President".

On the table for the evening meal was a candy pacifier which had the direction "Not for infants" and which had the tag attached reading "Pacify Us--Vote Hughes High for president." As students went to mark their ballots they were given a Blue Devil pencil with a tag reading "Mark your ballot for Hughes High".

In the campaign skit a true-false test was administered to Betty Conner by Billy Lock. Manual acted as a part of the Mafia gang to which Billy belonged.

The installation of officers took place at the banquet on Saturday evening.

SAY CONGRATULATIONS

Have you paused recently to say "congratulations" to students in our school who have done an outstanding job. Say "Thank You" also since they are the ones who are helping to make a name for our school in Arkansas. They are also the ones who are continuing the good work which was begun years ago in some activities.

How about our student council which is now the president of the state organization, THE ARKANSAS ASSOCIATION OF STUDENT COUNCILS.

And all those students who throughout this year have had art work on display in various spots and have won ribbons and money.

Those two track men who have set new school records.

Those members of the band who received both medals and ribbons at festivals and contests.

Those girls who to the surprise of everyone were able to score points against a number of teams long known for activity in the girls track events--Winners were Waldron, first; Fayetteville, second.

To members who were just initiated into Beta and Alpha Beta.

Yes, there are lots more of our students who are earning school recognition. How about you?
