There'll Always Be a Christmas

There'll always be a Christmas
To bring us hope and peace,
And nothing can destroy it—
The joy will never cease.
Whatever are our problems,
Whatever we must face,
We gain a new perspective
Within this time of grace.

There'll always be a Christmas
Though every dream may fail;
It's something we can count on
Through each December trail.
The twinkling trees and Santa
As carols flood the air,
The church bells ringing gaily
While people kneel in prayer,

There'll always be a Christmas
Because upon this day
Was born the blessed Jesus
Who came to light our way.

Road to Christmas

The road that leads to Christmas
Is lined with memory
Of holly wreaths and candles
And days that used to be.

The blessed joy of carols
That ring across the night,
The Baby in a manger,
A star our guiding light,

Beloved friends we treasure
Around a twinkling tree.
The road that leads to Christmas
Is lined with memory.

Christmas Prayer

As Christmas candles glisten
And church bells ring once more,
May happiness surround you,
Peace knock upon your door.

THE STUDENT PRINTS

Mr. Steven Edward Sands is our new English and Spanish teacher at Hughes High School. He is now taking Miss Judy Babb's place.

Mr. Sands is now 25 years old. He was born in Tulsa, Oklahoma. His hobbies are hiking, skiing, and camping. He's also a member of the Purple Circle, U.C.A.'s Bear Booster Club.

Mr. Sands said that he always wanted to be a teacher, but at one time he wanted to be an entertainer.

What Mr. Sands likes most about his job is the satisfaction he receives from working with students. What he likes least about his job is getting up early in the morning.

Have a great year and WELCOME!!!

Tammie Gardner

Mrs. Deborah Kaye Coomer's position at Hughes High School is the counselor clerk. She likes her position very much.

Her favorite food is hamburgers. Her favorite color is blue. Her hobbies are horseback riding, fishing, and swimming.

Mrs. Coomer attended college at Southern Arkansas University in Magnolia and she also attended nursing school in Fort Smith.

What Mrs. Coomer likes best about Hughes High is that everyone is friendly and easy to get along with. She enjoys working with students.

Tammie Gardner

Mrs. LaChelle Walker, who is replacing Ms. Odessa Jones, is our new special education teacher. She is the former Miss Hoskins who taught here several years ago. The University of Arkansas at Pine Bluff is where she received her education. Hughes High School was where she obtained her first teaching job.

We are proud to have her in our faculty this year.

Michael D. Glasper

Mr. Jimmy Hawkins is our new junior high math teacher. He teaches basic math and concepts. He is replacing Mrs. Rebecca Davidson, who retired at the end of the 1986-87 school year.

He attended Arkansas Tech University in Russellville where he received a Bachelor of Science degree. He taught Algebra I at Alma, Arkansas, for one year before he came to our school.

When Mr. Hawkins was asked how he liked his new job, he said, "It's fine because I have fun working with the students. The faculty is even easier to work with because they want to try to help you in every way possible." This job gives him the most challenges because of the different environment at Hughes.

Outside of school, Mr. Hawkins enjoys fishing and athletic events.

WELCOME TO HUGHES HIGH!!!

Marvin Williams

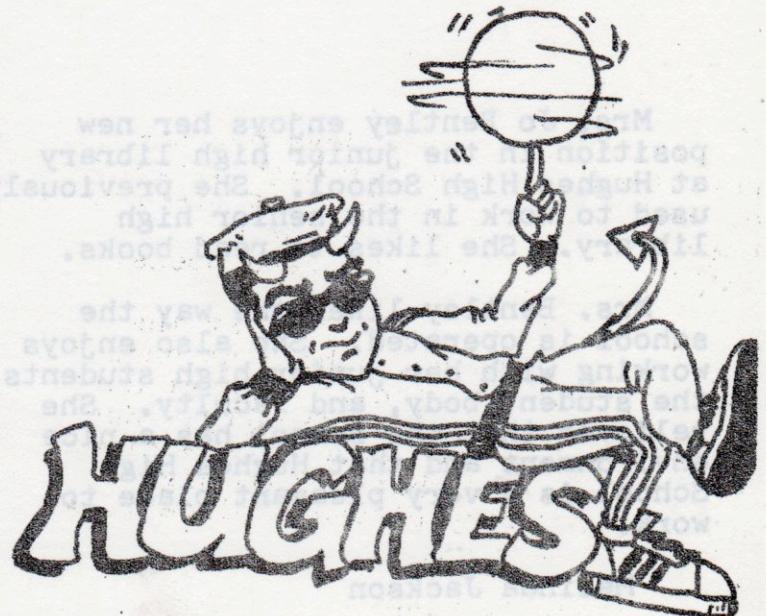

Ms. Josephine Stewart, a former freshman English teacher at Hughes High, made the change from English teacher to Junior High Counselor after seven years of teaching at that position. She attended Philander Smith College in Little Rock, Arkansas.

Ms. Stewart likes her new job as Junior High Counselor, but it involves an extremely large amount of work.

When asked which job was more demanding, she said, "This is my first year as counselor and I'm learning different things about due process. This job is definitely more demanding."

We wish you much luck in your new position as counselor.

Marvin N. Williams

Mrs. Lea Ann Lachowsky began teaching English and journalism this year at our school. Mrs. Lachowsky attended the University of Central Arkansas at Conway where she received a Bachelor of Science in Education.

She likes to shop and travel in her spare time. She is married to Mr. Ken Lachowsky, who teaches special education here at Hughes.

We are happy to have Mrs. Lachowsky as a teacher at our school this year.

Richard Collins

Mr. Mark Upshaw, who is replacing Mr. Jackson, is our new seventh and eighth grade mathematics teacher. The University of Arkansas at Monticello is where he received his education.

When asked what he liked most about this school, he said, "Most of all I like the students at Hughes High School."

We are proud to have him in our faculty this year.

Michael D. Glasper

Mrs. Jo Bentley enjoys her new position in the junior high library at Hughes High School. She previously used to work in the senior high library. She likes to read books.

Mrs. Bentley likes the way the school is operated. She also enjoys working with her junior high students, the student body, and faculty. She believes that the school has a nice environment and that Hughes High School is a very pleasant place to work.

Melinda Jackson

Mr. Leon Early is the new industrial education teacher at Hughes High School. He last taught at Phillips County Community College in Helena, and he now lives there with his wife, Jackie, a nurse. He has a son, Lee, who is a sophomore at the University of Central Arkansas. Mr. Early also has a daughter named Tracie, a senior at the University of Central Arkansas.

Mr. Early's favorite food is ice cream. His hobbies include antiques, woodworking, and sports. His favorite color just happens to be blue—one of our school colors.

Mr. Early graduated from Memphis State University with a Bachelor of Science in Technology and also from Phillips County Community College with an associates degree in drafting technology.

When asked what he admires most about Hughes High, he replied, "The students' attitudes seem to be better here than at other schools."

We hope you have a good year, Mr. Early.

Shannon Roach

Paula Jean Sibley's position at Hughes High School is senior high librarian. She last taught school at Berryville Public Schools at Berryville, Arkansas. She attended college at the University of Arkansas at Fayetteville and Tulane University. She taught school for five years as a social studies and science teacher, and she was also librarian there for one year. Her hobbies are jogging, reading, and listening to music.

She enjoys teaching at Hughes High because of the friendly faculty and students.

Louise Williams

Mr. James Sibley is a social studies and general cooperative education teacher. He last taught school at Berryville High School for seven years. He attended college at Henderson State University and the University of Arkansas. His hobbies are jogging and cooking. He enjoys living in Hughes and teaching social studies.

Louise Williams

Mrs. Lauri Currier is the new junior high English teacher at Hughes High School this year. This is her first year as a teacher and she seems to enjoy the job. She is living in Memphis with her husband Phillip Currier, who is a sales representative for Siemens Medical Systems.

Mrs. Currier's favorite hobbies include writing, snow and water skiing and singing. The different shades of pink are her favorite colors "because they can adequately reflect a wide range of moods."

Mrs. Currier attended the University of Arkansas at Little Rock. She received her Bachelor of Arts degree in English.

When asked what she admired most about Hughes High School, she replied "I admire the fact that there is a good balance between academics and extracurricular activities, both of which are important." She also said the student body and faculty were "A-O-K!"

Best of luck Mrs. Currier.

NEW RULES AND POLICIES AT HUGHES HIGH!

1. Students will be allowed eight absences per semester. Four of the eight must be excused. When a student misses classes an eighth time, the parent will be sent a notice of request for conference.
2. Tardiness will not be tolerated. If a student misses twenty minutes of a class, it will count as an absence. This applies to both the beginning and the end of the class period.
3. To certify an absence as excused, the student should bring a doctor's statement to the principal's office upon his return to school from illness. If the student was sick but did not see a doctor, or if the absence was due to reason other than illness, then the parent must come to the principal's office with the student upon the student's return to school after each such absence to verify that the student was not able to be in attendance.
4. Students who are absent more than three periods of the school day shall not participate in any school activity on that day or night. (Students cannot participate in any activity which requires them to miss during school hours if they have had an unexcused absence the preceding day. This includes band, choir, athletic teams, or any other school activity.)

DRESS CODE

1. No distracting clothing should be worn.
2. See-through clothing is not allowed.
3. Skirts must come to the top of the knee.
4. Suspenders must be worn correctly.
5. Sweat pants are not allowed, either singly or as a part of a suit.
6. T-Shirts with pictures and phrases in poor taste should be avoided.

ACT TIME

Since the school year is well under way, juniors and seniors at Hughes High School should give some thought to taking the ACT Assessment.

The ACT Assessment, which consists of four academic tests that measure educational development and a detailed questionnaire that collects information relevant to educational and career planning, is recommended or required by more than 2,700 post-secondary institutions and scholarship programs.

Most students take the ACT Assessment during the junior year or early in the senior year, so their results will be available in time for use in planning for postsecondary education and careers.

The guidance office has the information and forms students need to register for the ACT Assessment. ACT also provides free copies of the booklet, Preparing for the ACT Assessment, which contains information about getting ready for the examination, plus a complete practice test.

The basic registration fee for the Assessment is $10.50. Late registration will be accepted for an additional $10.00 late handling fee. For 1987-88, ACT has established this test date schedule:

Test Dates	Registration Deadlines
December 12, 1987	November 13, 1987
February 27, 1988	January 29, 1988
April 16, 1988	March 18, 1988
June 11, 1988	May 13, 1988

It takes about three hours to complete the four ACT exams in English, math, social studies, and natural sciences. The Assessment also includes a two-part questionnaire that students complete at home when they register. It focuses on interests, academic and nonacademic accomplishments, and vocational and educational plans and needs.

Colleges use information from the ACT Assessment for academic advising, admissions counseling, course sectioning and placement, student services, and institutional research. ACT Assessment reports are sent to students, their high school counselors, and the institutions and agencies the student specifies.

For more information about the ACT Assessment, see Mrs. Bennett.
